

GOLD! Finally!

Posted by dirtdigger1581 - 2012/07/03 17:12

Took me quite a few trips to the beach this year but I finally hit gold. I've spent 70+ hours on VA Beach searching for it, but today it couldn't elude me. Here's my first gold ring of the year. Hopefully many more to come...But I'm not holding my breath. 14K white & yellow gold and weighs 8.81g.

Happy Hunting!!!

Best part is it fits! So now I have a back-up if needed. Was starting to think that I wasn't going to get any gold this year. Been out to the beach numerous times and even clad is hard to find. Hopefully this is a sign of things to come!
